The Old Baptist Church Burial Ground
Lakeside Road Orange County New York

Copied by D T Ronk

1920

The above is a copy of the original record of the history of Orange Lake... the Dedication Services on completion of his Quaker Hall... This is on the site of a former Long House of the Quakers... (an Algonquin house) at the site of the grading of the... 1800s... as a Patent to Jacobus Kipp... Secretary of... Before leaving here he visited... Kipp was born October 17 1750 just 200 years ago... was also celebrated in New York April 30 and May 1 1850... at... under the auspices of the... New York (York)... Miss Elizabeth... incorporated the principal Mr and Mrs Jacobus Kipp

Head stones still legible at former Burial Ground in rear of the First Baptist Church at Newburgh" (Town) near its Baptismal font at Orange Lake just west of Lakeside Road toward Luptondale Orange County N Y

This Church separated from the Baptist Church of Pleasant Valley in 24 April 1790 But reunited with it from 1817 to 1832 as the Union Church of Pleasant Valley and Newburgh" This also ceased in 1840 December 5 Its house of worship was erected in 1806 and known as the Stone Meeting House " (30ft square 20 ft High 25ft at central peak) There was also a Parsonage and in therear of these was the Burial Ground which still remains as a neglected Orchard ; allwere on the farm of John Rodman

The above facts with following names and inscriptions are taken from the Notes of Dr Henry M Stock compiled for his proposed History of Orange Lake" excerpts of which were delivered by Him at the" Dedication Services on completion of his Quassuk Cabin . This is on the site of a former "Long House of the Quassaic Indians (an Algonquin Branch) at the time of the granting of the surrounding 7000Acres , as a Patent to Jacobus Kipp" first Secretary of Province of New Amsterdam Before locating here he resided at Kipp Bay New York Said grant was made October 17 1720 just 200 years ago and this fact was also celebrated in New York on April 30 and May 1 1920 at a Historical Community Pageant given at the Lexington Avenue Opera House N Y under the auspices of the Kipps Bay Neighborhood Association and the New York (War Camp) Community Service. It was there that his daughter Miss Ethelinda Marianne Stock (now Mrs N P Hallbert and Husband impersonated the principal Mr and Mrs Jacobus Kipp

Among about fifty recognizable graves with crumble field and other
Stones are the following legible stones with interesting inscription.

" Adieu a heart warm adieu,
My Broter of the Mystic Eye.
Ye Favord. Ye enlightened few.
Companions of my souls joy.
Go home my friends and shed no tears
I must lie here till Christ appears.
To day repent , while time you have
Theres no repentance in the grave
